CORAM : SMT.V.K.TAHILRAMANI,J.

DATED : 30th April, 2007.

P.C.:

1. Heard the learned Advocate for the Applicant and the learned APP for the State.

2. The applicant is seeking bail in C.R.No.299 of 2006 of Gamdevi Police Station. The said case is mainly under Sections 467, 468 of IPC.

3. The complainant works in the American Consulate as Fraud Prevention Manager. In the complaint, she has stated that the applicant produced fake and forged documents for obtaining Visa and also produced Xerox copies of Indian passport bearing forged immigration stamps of foreign Visas. He also produced the passport of one lady Deepa Prakash Patel and two girls i.e. one Pooja Prakash Patel and Meena Prakash Patel who pretended to be his wife and daughters respectively and attempted to obtain Visas.

4. The material on record clearly implicates the applicant. Thus, I do not think that this is a fit case to grant bail.

5. Application is rejected.

. Liberty to the applicant to prefer a fresh application for bail in case the trial is not concluded by 31st July, 2007.
